FROM: James F. Ross, Director

SUBJECT: 1985-87 MAINTENANCE GRANT AGREEMENT

On behalf of the Land Conservation and Development Commission, I am pleased to offer a Plan Maintenance Grant for 1985-87 to maintain your acknowledged comprehensive plan. The maintenance program provides State of Oregon funds to protect and keep active the considerable work already placed in your acknowledged plan. This investment recognizes the task before all of us to make comprehensive plans work to keep pace with Oregon's growth.

The enclosed agreement indicates your grant amount and terms of the grant. An authorized individual should complete and execute the agreement. Return the green copy to the Department of Land Conservation and Development, 1175 Court Street, NE, Salem, to receive payment. The white copy is for your records. The full amount of your grant will be sent to you after our receipt of the accepted grant.

For additional information on the plan maintenance grant program requirements, please contact your local field representative. Questions regarding grant amounts, disbursement, or reporting should be directed to Karla Barr in the Salem office at 378-5452.
